

1.37.1.23: The Identity of the 13 Moons and the (im)Perfect Storm

Dear synchronauts:

How are you at this beginning of the solar ring (year) of the Blue Rhythmic Storm, KIN 19?

As some of you may know, www.ordensincronico.com is a galactic portal of free information and the latest events related to the 3D time that I have experienced as Galactic Maya 999 have put on alert part of my/our planetary mission in this plane of existence called planet Earth a.k.a. Velatropa 24.3.

Today's galactic report has the function of clarifying and reflecting what should be done and what should not be done with the synchronic order. Who is valid in the prophecy game? Who has greater or lesser validity? Are there degrees of validity? Is it possible that there are levels of correctness and correlation with the Dreamspell information?

My intentions as Galactic Maya 999 have always been, beyond good and evil, to do THE RIGHT THING. In that sense, it is not up to me to know if there is something or someone who has agreed or not with any of the information that could have been given and offered FREELY from here... what is a fact is that only 1 person has expressed disagreement with this vision offered and the degree of importance is transversal.

The person who has questioned part (if not all) of the work that has been carried out from www.ordensincronico.com to open this information to the world is Mertxe Zuza, KIN 259, Blue Crystal Storm, administrator of the WEB www.13lunas.net.

Mertxe Zuza

Since the beginning when this information reached me, exactly 13 years ago, the WEBSITE of www.13lunas.net was and has been a beacon for many of us who sought to understand the tools that José Argüelles KIN 11, Blue Spectral Monkey and Lloydine Burriss KIN 22, White Solar Wind from the Harmonic Convergence (which today turns exactly 37 years old) until their separation in 2002, transferring this information to Stephanie South, KIN 185, Red Electric Serpent, by mutual agreement, so that she could maintain the legacy of the Foundation of the Law of time.

The story I am going to tell now surely sounds familiar to you and is the "History of human conflicts on Earth". This is how it is given that people, mainly from their egos, fed by their fantasies (not to mention a non-vegan diet that encourages the exploitation and subjugation of the animal world for our sole benefit) have abandoned all planetary intentions to solve the wars in the world.

It is precisely, from my intentions to do THE RIGHT THING, that I have been able to see how this lady, Mertxe Zuza, is another example of how sophisticated and twisted the mind can be when it comes to masking actions with intentions. What do I mean by this?

TRYING is not DOING. Good intentions are not good actions and this is where we are going to deal with the issue in detail, because for many years now, evil tongues have wanted to persuade me that Mertxe Zuza was not a good promoter or shareholder of the synchronic order. How was that possible, beyond what they said, if from my feelings and perceptions I can say that there is a large amount of information that can be obtained from the WEBSITE?

What is clear is that, in the end, information is just information and that it is "the consciousness of the soul" that has the capacity, will and action to awaken or not awaken "knowledge." What I can say about this period of learning that lasted Earth years is that I always had to buy much of the important information from the online store as books (like the synchronaries of the 13 moons) and my attempts to communicate with Mertxe to thank virtually were always responded in a curt, dry way and with little emotion. Likewise, I never really took this into account since I told myself “this is the being behind the entire www.13lunas.net WEBSITE. Accept it and respect it.”

As I received negative opinions from several people when I spoke to them about www.13lunas.net, I could see that despite Mertxe apparent good intentions, the work of the WEBSITE was never REALLY her, given that on many occasions, with some of the following chats that we were able to have, the truth is that the spelling mistakes and the inability to communicate correctly on the internet (on many occasions to my questions, she limited herself to telling me “look for it there” as if saying “don’t bother me ”) gave me clues that it could not have been just her who did all that work of organizing the information on the WEBSITE.

Indeed, beyond naming the hundreds of planetary KINs (if not thousands) who were part of the movement one day and who compiled all this information in Spanish... it is all these people who, in their magnitude, encompass the work behind www.13lunas.net and to whom we should thank for genuinely delivering, without expecting anything in return, the organization of the information of which Mertxe Zuza is now the main owner and shareholder. And where have all these people really gone? In short, Mertxe got them out of the way with his attitude.

And what has she done during this journey? Call into question the ways and actions of other planetary KINs that adopted this information and made it their own, for their own benefit, as she herself has also done in that sense.

Without going any further, it can be interpreted that this would also be my case when I wrote 1.36.4.14: The Death of José Argüelles and the Usurpation of the Throne that caused her to make the cross for me and without even saying a single word, erased me from all the Social Media, bringing Galactic Maya 999 contempt to an unexpected extreme. I have to say in my defense (and if you read the article until the end) that from the synchronic order José Argüelles will always be appreciated in its entirety, being the first great teacher of time taking into account his impact like the one Buddha may have had, Jesus Christ or Muhammad, but without separating his image from that of Lloydine Burris since by doing so, we are skewing the synchronological story.

When this event occurred following the publication of the galactic report, I let “some time pass” until I recently wanted to get in touch with her again to understand what exactly I had done to make her react like this, if there had been an offense towards her, her person or something with my attitude... I wrote to her with good intentions on WhatsApp as you could see in the images.

I'm not going to share screenshots of how she responded on Whatsapp in the end, but insulted will leave it in writing that it "hurt her a lot" that José Argüelles was "insulted" and that I was a very disrespectful person for having written an article like that (which was not she had finished reading, by the way). She continued to speculate that "she" had to deal with "all the viruses" that are released like this one she had written, that "everything I had said was a lie," that "she had all his books" and that everything about José Argüelles goes to mass. Without adding more, the degree of reactivity on her part escalated until I could feel that more than being a Blue Crystal Storm that cooperates with the energy, she is deep down a being "tormented" for some reason.

When I was able to see Mertxe's true personality as the conversation was taking place, I felt anger at first that later transformed into sadness and compassion. I tried to return to the idea of putting aside the brawl by proposing for the umpteenth time to put aside our egos and join forces. His fanaticism and pride led her again to reject and despise my outstretched hand that I offered her during the Hand Wavespell that we were passing through at that precise moment. After making it clear to her what I thought of her fanaticism, I was blocked from WhatsApp without any response.

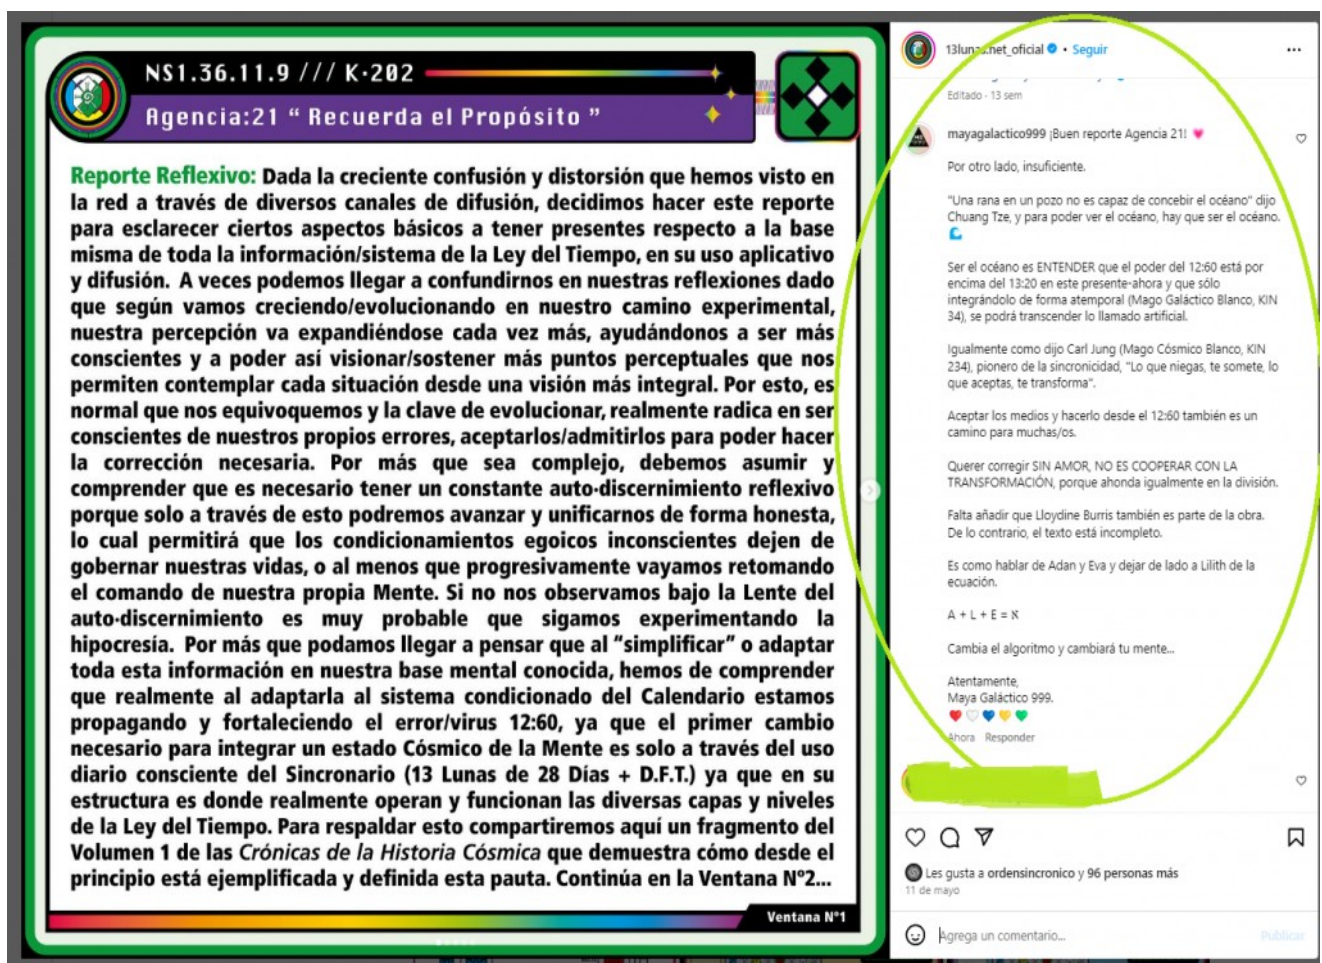

The same thing happened when I shared on Telegram two days later the information that was being shared from the R.S.S. about the death of the beloved Óscar Tinajero, KIN 42, White Electric Wind. Blocking without any response.

To finish this action, correct or not, of wanting to know who Mertxe Zuz... really is and being able to differentiate between intentions and actions, I decided to try with one last attempt yesterday on what his next reaction could be if I exposed her. to the power of Galactic Maya 999 with a public comment.

I then felt the call to write in this Reflective Report on the official Instagram of www.13lunas.net as Galactic Maya 999 activating several magic formulas to be able to question part of what is said in this publication. Below, you can read what I left written and sensing what could happen, I took a screenshot to leave testimony. Actually, I very much agree with what this report says <https://www.instagram.com/p/C6zgz1KUq3AH> but also, as I said, I needed to present my particular vision/mission:

Shortly after publishing this comment, the message was deleted without any response, and blocked by Mertxe on all my Instagram accounts because, in addition, he had left hundreds of positive likes on her latest posts. The same thing has happened on Facebook. And we arrive then, to the moment now in which I find myself writing all this.

– But then Galactic Maya 999, do you think it's nice to defame a person you don't know or haven't seen and about whom you barely know anything? – You will ask me...

– No, no, no... here, like everything in life, this can have its interpretation, and based on my good intentions I have always tried to ensure that they are also correct actions.

–And how do you plan to do it after everything you have written about Mertxe at this point? – You will say...

– It's simple, giving love to Mertxe's heart. It is clear that although it may seem personal, it is not. What does this mean? I would love to be able to illuminate your heart so that something changes in your soul and you realize the reflection you are giving to the World with your intentions, your actions and the sectarian way (of sector, or bias) you have of identifying with information... Also, on the other hand, aren't we all dead ALREADY? The relative importance here with respect to the ABSOLUTE is whether each attitude is in the direction of the evolution or involution of the soul, there is no more.

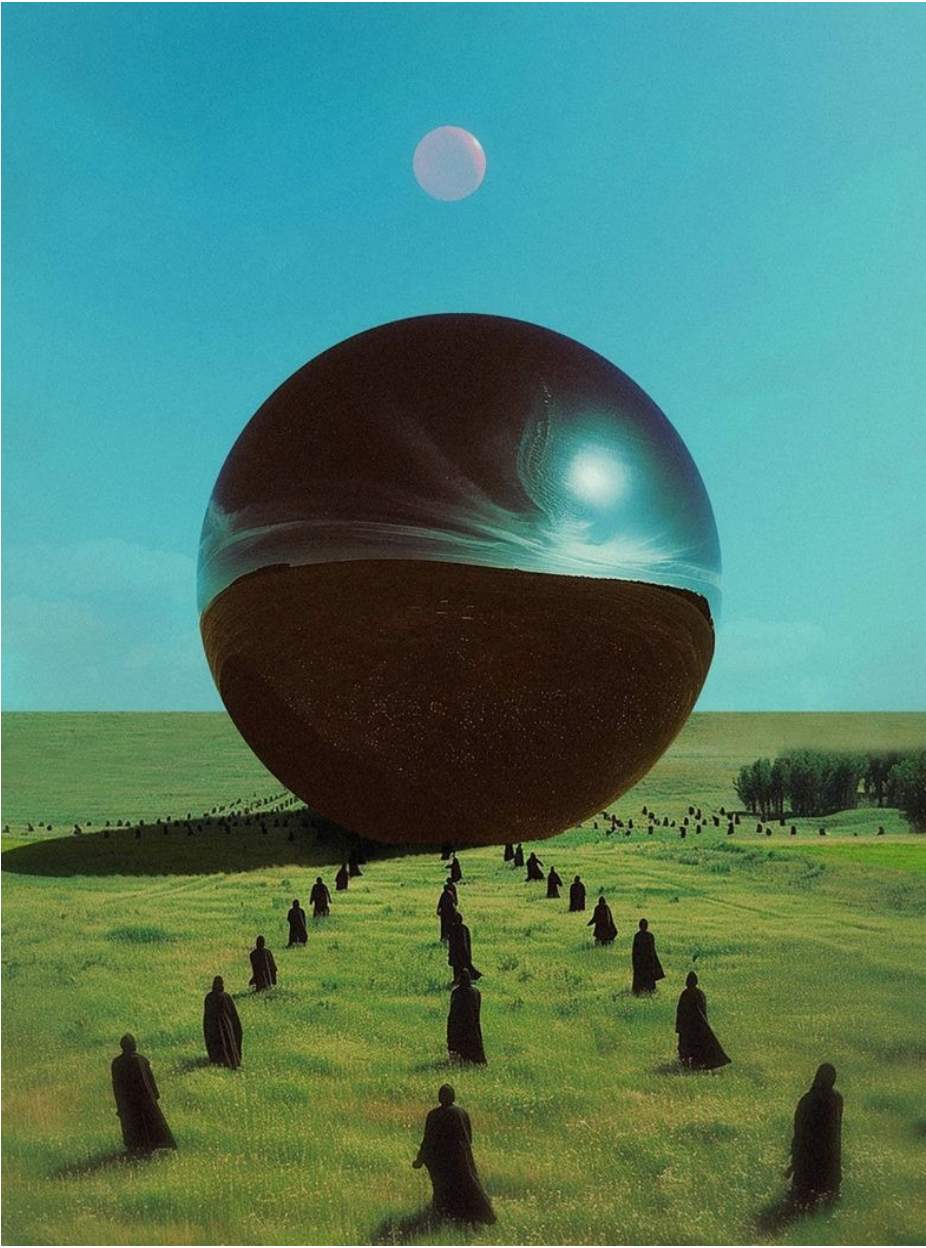

It is precisely in the HERE and NOW that you have to know how to turn everything around and know how to forgive. For my part, I apologize if anything said or done may have caused confusion or contempt for you or others individually. But, how can we unite our hearts if there are so many divisions in the mind and so much identification that rather than uniting us, it separates us?

For now, I will maintain my support to a greater or lesser extent for the work that www.13lunas.net does with the sale of synchronaries even though this causes the information to reach fewer people and mainly does nothing more than promote the 12:60 ($\text{Time} \times \text{Energy} = \text{Money}$). In addition, all information related to said WEB will be maintained from www.ordensincronico.com.

What cannot be is that we play the game of “if you are not with me, you are against me” because in this way we are feeding this 12:60 frequency that adheres us to the circle of karma and that leads the majority of the planet to the involution of the soul.

If we are planetary artists and we are becoming aware of our 4D condition, of our soul... Why are there individual interests behind all this? Don't you see that we are ONE and that good intentions are not enough?

Because good actions are not enough, good actions are not enough. Only the RIGHT actions are enough. Do you know how to differentiate good from correct?

So, what should be done with the Synchronic Order?

Share it and spread it from love. And if someone doesn't use the right words, with love, try to correct them. And if someone does not have the correct action, with love, try to correct it. Can we say that love can sometimes be violent? What is clear is that violence, in its entirety, can never be seen as love. Let's reflect.

There is already a lot of violence in the world, should it be allowed? No, but we cannot try to correct it without love, because in that way, we will be that violence.

Love gives everything, love has everything.

What you give, you give, what you don't give, you take away.

What you deny, subjects you, what you accept, transforms you.

And as José Argüelles (and also Llodyine Burris) said, "submit your ego and don't eat animals."

Sincerely,
Galactic Maya 999.
